

PROHIBITED HAZARDOUS ITEMS (Domestic Shipments)

Before your possessions are packed and loaded, it is important that you understand which items most common to household use cannot be transported. These materials represent a hazard as defined by the U.S. Secretary of Transportation and should not be placed onto a moving truck.

Hazardous Items (flammable, combustible, corrosive or explosive)

Acetone
Acids of any kind
Adhesives of any kind
Aerosol cans (Cooking Spray, Deodorant Spray, etc.)
Ammonia
Ammunition
Anti-Freeze Compound
Anything pressurized
Bleach
Butane Tanks
Candle
Car Batteries
Charcoal Briquette
Chemicals /
Dark Room Chemicals
Chemistry Set
Cleaning Liquid / Cleaners
Cologne / Perfume
Disinfectant
Drain Cleaner
Enamel
Fertilizer /
Fertilizer with Ammonium
Fire Extinguisher
Fireworks
Flash Bulbs
Furniture Polish
Gasoline
Guns / Loaded Guns
Household Batteries (wet or dry)
Hover boards
Insecticides
Kerosene

Lamp Oil
Lighter / Lighter Fluid
Charcoal Lighter Fluid
Liquors
Matches
Motor oil / Lubricant
Nail Polish / Shellac
Nail Polish Remover
Oil Stains / Wood Oil Stains
Paint or Varnish (Oil-based Paint)
Paint or Varnish Remover
Paint Thinners
Pesticide
Petro-Chemical Based Garden Spray
Petroleum Fluid
Photographic Acids used in developing film
Poisons
Polishes
Pool Chemicals
Propane Tanks
Reloading Supplies
Rubbing Alcohol
Scuba Diving tanks
Signal Flares
Solvents / Cleaning Solvents
Starter Fluid
Sterno
Water Purifying agents used in swimming pools
Waxes
Weed Killer
Welding Gasses

HOUSEHOLD PAINTS

OPENED ALCOHOL

HOUSEHOLD CLEANERS

AEROSOL CANS

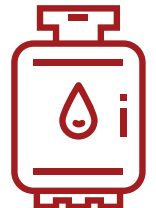

AMMUNITION

GASOLINE

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS

PROPANE TANKS

NOR-CAL
MOVING SERVICES

ALLIED

www.nor-calmoving.com